I require (tick where appropriate):

Full weekends (25/03/2016-27/03/2016) Camping and off-roading pass. £50.00

This is based on what is deemed as acceptable camping space, those who bring their 'Mog, Towing vehicle, awning, caravan, and big boy marquee will be asked to save some space for others!
The "deemed" acceptable space will be decided by the forum Admin (Villager)

Please note there will be motorbikes on site all weekend, and 4x4's on site on Sunday, Cowm Leisure hold a pre-planned off-road course on the Sunday, they have said that members are welcome to use this service!

CARAVANS: Currently we do not know if the site is suitable for caravans, we will have more information next week.

SHOPS: There is a co-operative approximately 1 mile away, there is no fresh water supply on site, so please bring bottled water.

CAMP-FIRES: A large communal fire will be lit on both nights, anyone is welcome to join us. It would be much appreciated if any members with the ability to supply some wood for the fire, would bring some along.

ON SITE DRIVING: When driving through the camp site please maintain a speed limit of 5MPH (8KM/H), This is for the safety of pedestrians and other site users, please remember that young children may be on site. Night time driving is strictly prohibited except to leave and enter the camp site, so no off-roading after the sun has set!

OPENING AND CLOSING TIMES: The camp site will be open from 14:00 on the 25/03/2016. All vehicles must be off site by 17:00 on 27/03/2016.
